

Strawberries

Strawberries are a member of the rose family. After a strawberry plant blooms, it takes about one month to produce a ripe strawberry. Strawberry plants continually produce fruit and may be picked 2-3 times per week during harvest season.

Strawberries are the only fruit where the seeds are on the outside. Did you know there are about 200 seeds on the outside of each strawberry?

Ag in the Classroom
Louisiana