

Second Annual Louisiana Ag in the Classroom Fast Food Farm Day

WEDNESDAY, JULY 10 FROM 9 A.M. – 1:30 P.M.

Visit the Fast Food Farm in Gramercy, LA with Louisiana Ag in the Classroom for an immersive, agri-educational STEAgM experience this summer.

WHO: Open to all Louisiana pre-K – 12th grade educators.

WHAT: Louisiana Ag in the Classroom is sponsoring a FREE immersive, agri-educational STEAgM opportunity at the Fast Food Farm where Louisiana pre-K – 12th grade educators will learn how to use agriculture to teach Louisiana Student Standards.

Participants will receive free materials to use in their classrooms. Lunch and refreshments will be provided. There will be special drawings for gift cards and door prizes. This is an educator-only event—no children please, and dress comfortably, as this is an outdoor venue.

Certificates for Continuing Learning Units (CLUs) will be provided; however, AITC cannot guarantee that local education agencies or other organizations will accept these CLUs for credit.

WHEN: Wednesday, July 10 from 9 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

WHERE: Fast Food Farm, 2042 North Golden Grove Road, Gramercy, LA 70052

HOW: Registration is required. Complete the online form at www.aitcla.org. Registration deadline is July 1.

FAST FOOD FARM IN GRAMERCY, LA

The Fast Food Farm is a nonprofit, agri-educational farm in St. James Parish teaching the importance of agriculture for the benefit of everyone.

www.aitcla.org